Waffles

Since I got Waffles, we spend every moment together. We go to work, eat lunch outside, go home and play, and sometimes have dinner on a restaurant patio. She has come to art openings with me and hangs out with me in my studio. We are truly best friends. Waffles makes me a better, healthier person. Although I've only had her a while, I can't imagine not having my wing lady with me on all our adventures!

Waffles was fostered by volunteers and staff at the Harris County shelter to get her healthy enough for adoption.

Cato

When I brought Cato home from the Harris County shelter, she had never seen stairs and was terrified of them. I laugh about that now. She runs the stairs in a flash, and darts out the dog door to protect the yard from squirrel invasion. Cato shows love and gratitude, common in rescue dogs. It's as if she's telling me "thank you" every day. But having Cato around keeps a big smile on my face. And that's thanks enough! Things worked out great for us. For the squirrels, not so much...
